Third party cross account acceptance and authorisation transfer terms

Online account to account/third party cross account acceptance and authorisation of transfer terms

With regards to my transfer request, either:

- a) for funds to be transferred out of the account I hold with Ox Securities Ltd ("Ox Securities") and into any other account held with Ox Securities and/or
- b) for funds to be transferred into the account I hold with Ox Securities from another Ox Securities account;

By proceeding with any of the above described transfers ("Transfer" or "Transfers") I understand, acknowledge, accept and authorise that:

1. Any amount leaving my account will be debited from my account
2. Any amount entering my account will be credited to my account
3. Funds transferred are the property and responsibility of the account holders and as such no responsibility or liability whatsoever may be attributed to Ox Securities. In any case, I shall hold Ox Securities harmless of, and shall indemnify Ox Securities against any and all claims to such funds
4. The sender or recipient of these funds may view the number and types of accounts I maintain with Ox Securities.
5. Ox Securities may in its reasonable discretion withdraw or amend any account information at any time.
6. Ox Securities is under no obligation to provide account information in hard copy, email or any means other than through its online trading facility.
7. The transaction takes place in good faith and I have verified the identity of the other transacting party. As such, I have correctly completed the required transaction details
8. Any electronic instructions shall be treated as satisfying any legal requirement that a communication should be signed and in writing. Any rights or requirements under any applicable laws, rules and/or regulations in any jurisdiction which require an original (non-electronic) signature or delivery or retention of non-electronic records, are hereby considered waived.

I agree to all the above.
